

IMPORTANT UPDATES

Cambium Networks

OCTOBER 16, 2026

Dear Partner,

Cambium Networks has released the below official announcement today, October 16, 2026. The pages following is an update on Product Support.

On Wednesday, October 14, 2026, Univastu India Limited completed the acquisition of Cambium Networks. The acquisition includes the ePMP™ and Enterprise businesses, and of particular importance, cnMaestro™ Network Management. Cambium Networks will operate as a standalone subsidiary of Univastu.

“Univastu is so pleased to have the opportunity to acquire Cambium Networks. What Univastu acquired is a tremendously talented team, a proud tradition of product innovation, and a stellar partner and customer community,” said Pradeep Khandagale, Chairman & Managing Director. “We look forward to guiding the rebirth of Cambium Networks and enabling it once again to be a leading wireless networking solution provider.”

Cambium Networks is excited to announce that it will immediately move to resume production and is more pleased to announce that cnMaestro Cloud will continue to operate on a go-forward basis.

Cambium Networks looks forward to engaging partners and customers and supporting their networking requirements.
